1951

THE COTTON

BOLL

Presented by
The Senior Class - OF
LEXINGTON HIGH SCHOOL
Lexington, Tennessee

1951

DEDICATION

Mrs. W. B. Wilson, who in the time she has been shaping our destinies as a teacher has not only won the respect and admiration, but also the love and loyalty of the student body by her sincere interest and devotion to her task of serving us as well as her scholarly bearing and lady-like manner.

For her beautiful life, her gracious dignity and endless interests in the students of Lexington High School, and for those enduring virtues she possesses, we the Senior Class, lovingly dedicate the 1951 Cotton Ball.

A black and white photograph of three young women standing outdoors in front of a wooded area. They are dressed in uniforms that resemble 1940s-era football jerseys. The woman on the left wears a light-colored, double-breasted jacket with a dark collar and a dark skirt. The woman in the center wears a similar jacket but with a dark skirt and a dark, pointed hat. The woman on the right wears a light-colored, double-breasted jacket with a dark collar and a dark skirt. All three are smiling and holding bouquets of flowers. The text 'FOOTBALL LOYALTY' is superimposed over the lower half of the image.
